THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

25X1

The Financial Committee of the Central Political Affairs Yuan* recently instructed the China Foodstuffs Company to establish four large food-storage centers at Ssup'ingchich, Kalgan, Hankow, and Chungking. These centers are to store current grain levies for reshipment and distribution. They will also hold a definite quota of grain for military needs, which will not be released in the market under any circumstances.

* Comment. This is presumably the Committee of Finance and Economics of the State Administrative Council, which directs the work of government ministries, including the Finance and Food Industry.

 Comment. background information on the China Foodstuffs Company.
